WE DEDICATE OUR 1979 YEARBOOK TO OUR PRINCIPAL

DR. R.C. DAVIS

For the past eleven years Dr. Davis has been principal of our school. He has given us understanding, advice and respect and in turn has earned our respect. He has always been concerned about the welfare of each girl in the school and has based his decisions on what is best for us, socially, morally and academically.

We shall remember his kindness, concern and warm personality. Dr. Davis takes with him our wishes for health, joy and peace.

ONTARIO LADIES COLLEGE 1979

Within the walls of Trafalgar Castle,
Words in many languages echo.
Content or Discontent, the joys and laughter will never be forgotten.
Canadians or not, we all love Canada.

Night till dawn, some people sleep.
Dawn till dark, some people work.
Our mental malnutrition is treated by the teachers,
Our hunger for friendship is fed by the girls.

We know we will miss waterfights,
We know we will miss pizza nights.
Deep in our hearts, we will miss everybody.

Knowledge and experience we gain,
Energy and friendship we give,
Success is in our hands.

In the end, laughter subsides, tears are shed.
We walk through the Castle door to the world.
We have confidence and courage.
We also have regrets.

Who can deny that we have already conquered another world?

O.L.C. is a microcosm.

Margaret Lau
Grade 13

Dear Old Trafalgar
Hear thou our hymn of praise,
Hearts full of love we raise
Proudly to thee.
Thy splendour never falls,
Truth dwells within thy walls,
Thy beauty still enthralls,
Dear O.L.C.

Through thee we honour
Truth, virtue, loveliness.
Thy friendships e'er possess
Our constancy.
Thy spirit fills us through,
So we'll be ever true
To our dear blue and blue
Of O.L.C.

O! Alma Mater
How can we from thee part?
Thou only has our heart,
Dearest of schools.
Thy glory we shall see
Wherever we may be,
Still love of O.L.C.
Our future rules.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

PREPARING FOR SUCCESS IN THE EIGHTIES

At a conference of Principals of Independent Schools for Girls in Boston, I was pleased to be able to hear some ideas about Preparing for Success in the Eighties which should be shared with you.

An intellectual bias is a "must". A lady must comprehend multidimensional relationships and "feminine intuition" is to be replaced with intellectual and analytical skills.

In order for a woman to work smoothly within a complex organization, a soft voice, a sense of humour, and a low-key personal style are most acceptable. Success in your environment will help others to be motivated to do their part in carrying out group decisions.

To be able to have a high tolerance of possible conflicts which are bound to arise, will require you to sort out disagreements without being personal. Debating skills will be an asset. Communicating effectively, both verbally and in writing, becomes essential to avoid any misunderstanding which could spread confusion. It is unlikely that praise will abound for the talented work you will do, but learning to compensate by recognizing your own worth will help you over many hurdles. "Well done" is something you are more likely to hear from yourself than from anybody else.

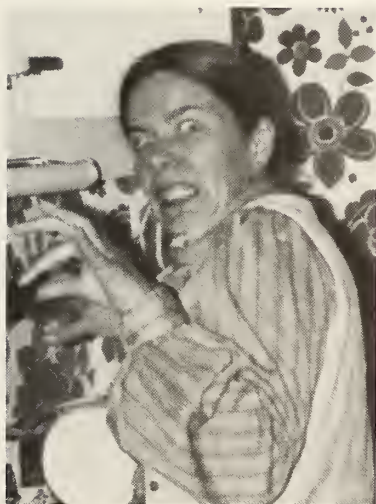

Regular exposure to pressure situations makes for cool heads and steady hands. A girl must learn to be comfortable even in the middle of unexpected disruption and extensive commotions.

The successful girl of the eighties will make the best of her abilities in the middle of the technological world of tomorrow. She will desperately need a code of values which will exhibit a highly developed moral sense of right and wrong. Many of the alternative decisions under consideration by management have strong moral and sociological content. Fortunate is the girl whose spiritual values help her make the important decisions of life, so that she may have harmony in her inner being.

It has always been my great ambition to enhance the development of the above attributes by providing an environment in the school which would provide for academic growth, tolerance of others, and moral maturity and personal responsibility.

Now, as I write this final message, it is my hope that you have developed some of these characteristics and will continue to develop them for the rest of your life.

To one and all I wish you success in your future, great happiness and excellent health. I hope that you will never forget your life here at the College, nor those who have made it possible.

DEAN'S MESSAGE

At first, the town, the long road, the house --

its history,
its mystery,
its beauty:

All this, planted in us all,

issued in brightness and lightness,
fear and despair,
and the more moderate tones that helped us to get ready, to hope, to plan, to brace, to be open.

And then, the others --

the glistening, glimmering, diamond-cut peoples, girls, women, and men:

Sometimes we falteringly wrapped ourselves in ourselves;

Sometimes we took a confident step towards another;

Sometimes we laughed together,

Sometimes we cried and reached out to lighten the heaviness.

Finally, time, which only measures, and dies as soon as it is born, yet mysteriously weaves together the fabric of the place, the people:

Time took care of the town (not-home) and us there;

the road and us on it;

the house and us in it;

Time took care of the hills and valleys of our lives --

the work and play, the friends and lack of friends, the roommates, the classrooms, the squirrels we fed, the fence, the sometimes lonely rooms.

But time is now measured and dead,

And we leave the town, the road, the house, the people --

Some of us for a season, some forever.

Do we have only memories, words-in-our-minds?

Do we have only poems?

People, things, events that happen to us, or we to them, are not neat-tied cameos;

Rather, they are a continuum of eyes, ears, mouth, fingertips, blood, heart,

Which we cannot write, draw, play on a violin --

They are not translatable, these pieces of flesh and blood and soul of us-and-the-others:

They are alive and well and living in us and in our breath.

Vaya con Dios,

Beth Clelland

HEAD GIRLS MESSAGE

Veni, Vidi, Vici

As my seventh and final year rushes to a close, I can honestly say that this has been my best year. There were the good times and the bad times but the good times certainly outnumbered the bad, and we have all managed to survive.

I'd like to thank everyone in O.L.C. for making this such a great year and to wish you all the luck and happiness in the future.

As the year draws towards the close it seems so much harder to say good-bye, but remember, "Good-bye doesn't mean forever."

Love,
Chris

From the beach in 1965, school picture in 1975 to Head Girl, CONGRATULATIONS Chris.

Is it a Varley?

Stacy Ridgely was the first to suspect that a painting, which had hung at the Ladies' College for many years, had been painted by a member of the Group of Seven.

The painting has been submitted to Peter Varley, son of the famous painter, for authentication.

We are all hoping it is a genuine "Varley" and we will hang it with pride in our College.

Ann Goverde

Pam Black

Pam arrived at O.L.C. in a state of shock, but she soon warmed up and within a month she was dancing up a storm. Pam is known in social circles as Gene Gene, the dancing machine, Miss Piggy and Peter Pan. Pam's hopes for the future involve becoming a ballerina, a chemist, a hairdresser, a world traveller, and above all SKINNY! Good luck in whatever you do.

Can I have some of that too?

Where's the rice?

Well, poop de doo and ladedda!

Stacy Ridgely

An unwilling entrant into the class of '79 Stacy has certainly made her contribution to the life of Main Hall. (The volume wars with Pam, the Yan Can lessons on T.V.) Every weekend Stacy bombed the slopes, our champion downhill racer, returning Sunday but longing for Friday. Spacebog has the meals and the wheels and can usually be found among the relics which she and her roommate have collected over the year. Stacy is often mistaken for Chinese but we all know why her eyes are squinty! Her future plans? Very mysterious! Best wishes from everyone Space.

It's all good stuff!

Ann Goverde

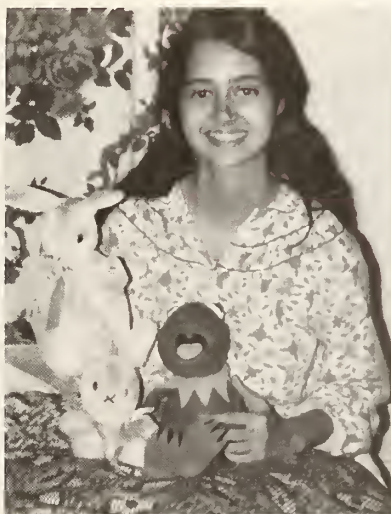

A great day girl, Ann has acquired the reputation of the "Wild Partier". This has been her first year at O.L.C. and we must admit that she has lasted well. Known as the less l-o-n-g legged one she travels everywhere in her little toy car. She has a passion for skiing (and eating afterwards), disco dancing, punk rock and the endless search for a man of the right size! We hope she will get lots of reading done at University. Perhaps by the time she is twenty-one she will have read every Canadian novel! Happiness and sunshine always.

Those aren't mine!

Who them? I've never seen them before in my life.

Niloofer Surti

Nil Surti, our resident mouse, came to O.L.C. looking for some action. As it turned out she became the undercover terror of grade 13, disguising herself as a quilt, an unobstrusive scholar, sometimes choking herself while studying biology. These strange phenomena occur when the moon is high and full! Nil's ambition is to become a schizophrenic but we all know that she will make it as Dr. Surti!

They're wonderful life-long friends.

Lori Martin

Lori has served O.L.C. for six long years, showing special dedication to Monday morning classes. In her spare time Lori can be found trying desperately to serve a volleyball or writing articles for that popular magazine. Scuzzie, with her school spirit and her loud earphones will be remembered for her efforts to satisfy her craving for Chinese food and working on keeping things 'All in the Family'. Lori plans to go to Ryerson to study hotel management. Don't forget to keep those reservations open for O.L.C. when you have your own hotel! Good luck Lori and have fun in all you do.

Angela Roth, the arrowroot and cracker queen! Angela left school early in the year . . . to stand in line for Stones' tickets? Happiness always.

Chris Burns

Chris Burns, our head girl and the most avid hockey fan in O.L.C. She never failed to report to the Leafs' score, the news and the blues, on Monday and Thursday mornings. Chris was voted our Carnival Queen and she represented our school in the Whitby Winter Carnival.

The school will not be the same next year without Christine Burnstine's gambolling in the gym.

Next year Chris hopes to attend Western where her friendly personality will make many friends for her as it has during her seven years at O.L.C.

What are you looking at???

Look at me, I'm Sandra Dee!

Kathy Davis

For five fleeting years O.L.C.'s walls have rung with Dave's sudden, warming laughter. She has cheerfully taken part in almost every activity in the school . . . and a few others! Through it all she has harboured secret dreams of launching into space with Richard Hatch.

When Dave leaves, a lot of spirit, energy and laughter will leave with her. We'll miss you and love you, wherever you are.

Found it.

Kathy, I can't hold this smile much longer.

Joanne Elias

Joanne hails from Barbados, island in the sun. She is easy to get along with except in the morning when she greets each day with a hearty *!?! But breakfast soothes the savage beast and she is soon her usual bouncy self.

Second on Joanne's hate list is TOES . . . weird but true!

Her ambition is to become a journalist so we will look forward to some exciting articles. Whatever she does, we hope she will continue to bring joy and sunshine to others.

Why me???

Norma . . . BOYS . . .

Take me, I'm yours!

Megan Strobel

Megan, alias Megs, Scapino, Strobel, has dwelt within the walls of O.L.C. for three years. She has been an avid partier and an excellent actress (she won the drama award in 1978) as well as being the head of the Athletic Association, Social Convenor and head of Drama for 1979. She has added vitality to the school with her laughter and participation and to anyone who knows her personally, she is a great friend. She has strong muscles for flipping people in Judo, strong hands for massages, and hay-wire hair for the look of craziness. When we are gone from the walls of O.L.C., we will truly miss the echo of her laughter in the halls, her companionship, her supportiveness and her understanding. We love ya, Megs!

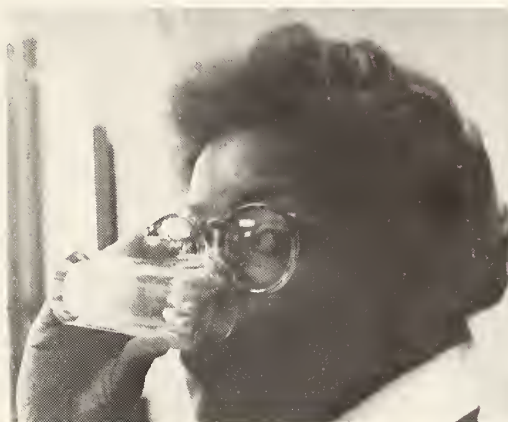

Pampers, they really stay dry!

Clowns in a corner.

Jenny Lee Lightfoot

This has been Jenny's first and last year at O.L.C. (thank Heavens!). I'm sure the school could not take one more year of her amateur opera singing in the shower. Jenny is not what you'd call a night owl; in fact, she starts getting ready for bed right after school! Jenny's main ambition in life is to become a master chef. She practices frequently by preparing poisonous cup-a-soup which she serves to her teachers and classmates. We will always remember Jenny and we wish her the best of luck for the future.

Good to the last drop!

Hello Gorgeous!

Bermuda Baby came back for an encore performance. It's been great for Whitby business, especially King Pizza, for which the town has great reason to be thankful. Norma has made her mark by contributing herself and her Bermuda gold to our evening get-togethers. Where there's an island tune you'll find Norma, eyes closed and body swaying. Good luck from us all.

Gail Corn

Gail has been with us for two years, and in that time we've grown to appreciate her warm personality and friendship. Gail's smile and laughter will remain with us forever. Our dear day girl prefect will surely be missed next year. Lots of luck, Gail.

Boring!

Cute, ain't we!!

Janet Henstock

Janet is always laughing, giggling, — a joyous addition to the day girl contingent and to our choir. Glamorous "Dammit" took Italy by storm but failed in her search for a six foot Italian. We're happy she decided to spend her graduation years here at O.L.C. with us and we wish her well in fashion designing.

Dr. Bronte, mastermind.

Beverly Bronte-Tinken

Bevo came to O.L.C. from Trinidad and within two weeks was known as Dr. Bronte. From a land of sun to a land of snow Beverly has adjusted very well. With her beautiful voice she has brought joy to her friends and honour to her school. With her Chemistry prize under her arm Bev is off to McMaster in September.

Margaret-Rose Mentis

Rose has danced the halls of O.L.C. for five years. "Chinese Eyes" has made a major contribution to the sports life of the school, to dramatic activities and above all this year to the yearbook. She can be seen trying to jump out of her skin to the beat of disco music — to lose a pound, and to please THAT BOY. She hopes to be a designer or a math teacher, but above all RICH. Good luck and happiness, Marg.

Diana Kellington

Diana has devoted this, her first year at O.L.C. to playing tricks on Miss Kreklewetz, taking Friday afternoon dips in the pool and giving vent to her feelings on chemistry in the study hall. But we all know how much she has enjoyed herself. Diana plans on moving south to study drama and she takes with her our best wishes.

Washroom Wonderland.

Margaret Lau

Margaret has spent three happy years at O.L.C. As a cook of many specialties she has filled many stomachs and delighted many taste buds. Margaleet always astounds us with her amazing dog stories. We will miss her quaint little laugh which will be ringing through the halls at Brescia in September. Good luck.

All these stupid poses.

I'm bored and still 39 minutes to go.

Maria Chan

Her comes Chan Chan Chan! What do we say about the girl who falls asleep in class but is a wizard when she is awake? The envy of the school, who never gains an ounce and never has to fight for one mark. Good luck Maria in U. of T.

CLASSES

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENT SHEET

NAME OF STUDENT Jane Goombah

SUBJECT

ENGLISH: LITERATURE: Write 3 book reports and a novel. Then do 5 character sketches for each character in every book you've ever read.

SPELLING: Look in the dictionary and list every word you've never heard of, with definition.

MATH: P. 125 1 to 60.

Calculate how many hairs are in your head, and then check by counting them. Make 8 math projects involving geometric molecular structuring.

HISTORY: Study and memorize the entire history of the world. Make a project about the unknown natives of Hatutu. Make a ten year, day-by-day report of what you think will happen to Canada's Govn't.

GEOGRAPHY: Draw up your own galaxy, with an index of 50 pages, along with diagrams, cross-sections, and geographical land structures, for every planet in it. Take a journey to the centre of the earth.

SCIENCE: Disect 6 members of your entire family. Pickle one of your fingers. Count and record every piece of grass in Ontario. Make a survey about how many people eat elephant feet, cat ears, and upholstered chesterfields.

MUSIC: Write 6 symphonies, 8 concertos, and music for an opera. Design two new instruments. Sing 8 octaves while under water.

ART: Paint your house with red and yellow paint.

FRENCH: Travel to France and start up your own travel bureau.

GYM: Run across Canada on your hands.

OTHER: Hold your breath for an hour. If you really have to go to the washroom badly, make it more fun by counting to 1,000,000 before you go.

SIGNATURE OF PARENT: Mrs. Zoe Goombah

TERRIFIC TWELVE'S

We all had a good time in Grade 12 last year. We'll never forget Mrs. Jardine or Mrs. Kendrick as they babied us, bossed us and took care of us. Who will ever forget the day we put the poster on Mrs. Jardine's door or the time we piled a bunch of lockers together in the hall. Not every day was this exciting but never were they dull.

Fran Perini: "But that's okay for me cause, I'm a wild and crazy girl."

Melanie Vaucrosson: "I want Zane, but I'll settle for pizza."

Ricky Edness: "I want to go home."

Sylvia Cantu: "I only got six letters today."

Karolina Kargacin: "You Canadians are so fast."

Anastacia Johnson: Embarrassed!

Kathy Chester: True love — Me and my Honda!

Becky Cheung: "Who's got my pink elephant?"

Maria pia Bevilacqua: "Let's go to Bermuda — SCAGGS!"

Erika Sands: "Red heads have more fun!"

Claudia Dabdoub: "Help! I can't reach the showertap."

Lisa Hodkinson: "Let's play backgammon!"

Carrie Papé: "I'm going for a Coke."

Chris Kirby: "Where's Chester?"

Stepheny Chan: "Thank God it's Friday!"

Magdalena Terrones: "I do say you, shut up!!"

Chris Hnatiuk: "What's a boongie???"

Jane Lloyd: "2+2 is 5, right Miss Krecklewetz?"

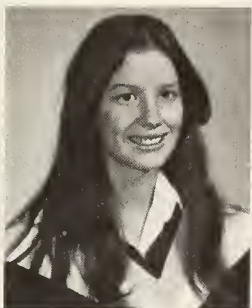

Susanna Shek: "I'm finished and it's only 3 a.m."

Susan Schuurman: "Leave it to Sigmund Freud."

Belle Au: "Shake it BABY."

Cathy Barron: Quiet as a mouse.

Homeria Kahleesi: "I had the longest X-mas break ever!"

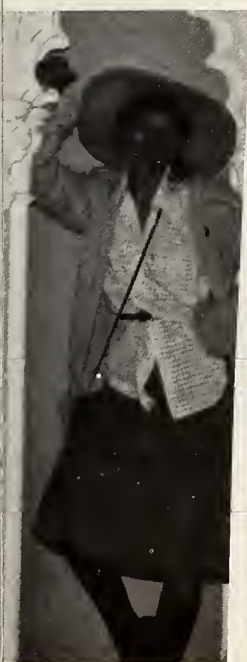

Mary Ellen Davies: "I just love school!"

Eva Li: "What day is today???"

A collage of black and white photographs of students, with a large white speech bubble in the center containing the text "GRADE 11". The photos show various students in different poses and settings, some smiling, some looking surprised, and some in action. The collage is layered, with some photos appearing more prominent than others. The overall theme is the Grade 11 student body.

Tina Brillinger: TWINK POWER.

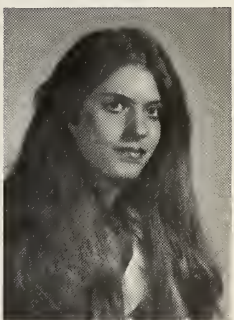

Sarah Read: Have you seen that new VAN?

Valerie Maggs: That's not right.

What did you say?

Diane Opzoomer: "Mellow Di."

Gardenia Russell: Audrey, where are you???

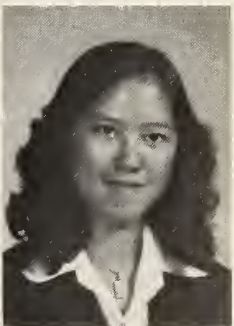

S-T-R-E-T-C-H

I'm tired Fans.

Carolynn Archer: I'm sorry.

Don't look at me I didn't eat it.

Hang a HEART.

We're waiting . . .

Seek and ye shall find.

Did you say "HOMEWORK???"

Anytime is party time.

Leslie Ann Russell: A faithful day girl.

Susan Manning: "Grumpy."

Fran Wilkinson: That's life.

Polly Perini: Don't get me mad.

Don't look at her, she's only an amateur.
The sweet three.

Beth Hann: "Don't worry I'm immune."

Jane Petroff: Do I look concerned?

Jane Ross: Chief.

Martha Casanova: Sour Cream and Onion.

Sandi Farran: Prince Charming.

Jennifer Brown: "Donna."

Dawn-Marie Molyneaux: Is that phone call for me?

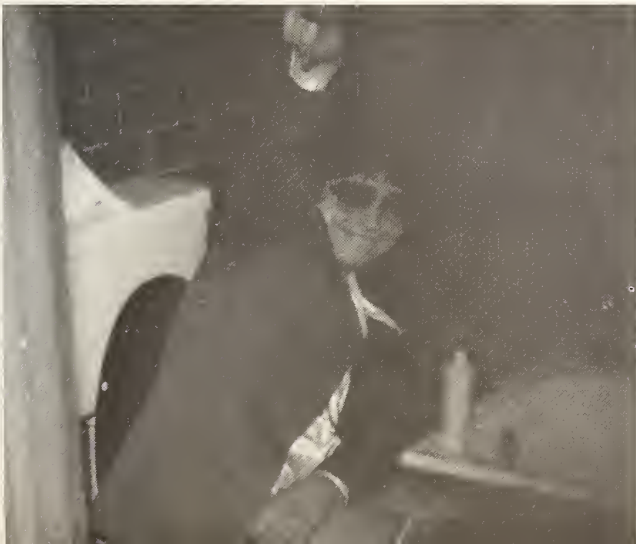

Marie Taylor: Letter-Tatem.

HAPPINESS IS ...

SNEAKY SEVEN'S

Mashsheed Katireai: "Mind our own business."

Melissa Gogek: "I give up."

Isabel Gonzalez: "I'm still waiting for a letter from ..."

Leslie Dickson: "Teddy Bear/Piojo."

Sharon Coath: "Wonderful."

Junie Bhar: "I'm a Gemini, what are you"?

Nicole Cooper: "Super Pig."

Margaret Elliott: "Spanish radar."

OF COURSE I LOVE YOU

CRAZY EIGHTS

Megan Smith:
"Hey."

Lisa Lafontaine: "Sneezy."

Stephanie Kirkham:
"Steffannie."

Niloofer Surti: "I left it upstairs."

Deborah Glynn: "G'day."

Tommie Jo Reid:
"Tough Tacos."

Kelly Speirs: "Freak Out."

One day we had a party. Hats and pizzas were the thing. We danced and laughed and had lots of fun but poor Miss Szkokan vowed she'd never have us back.

Mary Halam-Andres:
"Hue."

Angel Adam: "I hate this mess."

Dear Carter,
Carter House you are the best.
We lost a few, but won the rest.
I'd like to thank you for what you've done
All through the year it's been great fun.

Carter House you tried to win,
Both outside and in the gym.
The spirit I've seen was really great,
You'll always be my best team mates.

The position of house captain has not been an easy one. At times the struggle for participation and cooperation has been arduous. However, despite the difficulties, I feel that being House Captain has been a rewarding job and a memorable one.

I would like to give thanks to the juniors who were so punctual at practises and games, and who sometimes substituted for the lack of senior players. I give my thanks to Ricky Edness for her help.

I wish everyone happiness.

Sue Schuurman, House Captain.

MAXWELL HOUSE

Maxwell House is more than coffee,
To us it means a team
Of happy people who work together
And sometimes it's a scream,
To perform our annual houseplay,
With everyone involved
And when we came up with a problem
It was quickly solved.
We are always together, like the Lion and the Mouse,
But that's because we're all together in the Maxwell House!

Melanie Vaucrossan
House Captain

"There's a breathless hush in the close tonight -
Ten to make and the match to win-
A bumping pitch and a blinding light,
An hour to play and the match to win.
And it's not for the sake of a ribboned coat,
Or the selfish hope of a season's frame,
But her captain's hand on her shoulder spoke -
Play up! Play up! and play the game!"

SCF

Student Christian Fellowship

This year has been a very successful one for the Student Christian Fellowship. Our fall bazaar was very profitable, enabling us to raise enough money to support our two foster children for another year. We held a volleyball game, a few sing songs, a tobogganing evening and an S.C.F. church service.

I would like to thank Miss Kreklewitz, without whom we would not have had such a wonderful year.

Peace, and God be with you.

VOICE STUDENTS

Under the direction of Miss Kellogg, the voice students had a fruitful year, especially at the Kiwanis Festival. Top award, solo singers under 18 — the Junior Rose Bowl — B. Bronte-Tinkew. Nil Surti and B. Bronte-Tinkew won the Junior Lieder class. S. Ridgely and S. Schuurman placed fourth in their duet. K. Chester and B. Bronte-Tinkew third in this class. Sue, Stacey, Kathy second in trio. The younger singers placed second in their duet 'Sweet and Low'. Congratulations to all our stars.

The choir has hummed along in a most harmonious fashion this year. We sang at school functions, such as the Christmas Carol service, Christmas dinner and Open House.

We would like to give a special thanks to Mr. McClure who devoted much time and effort . . . not always without some difficulty . . . to leading our choir.

We hope you will enjoy yourselves as much next year as we have. Just remember,

Never 'b' flat.

Sometimes 'b # '.

Always 'b ♯ '.

JUDO

This is the first year that there has been a Judo Club at O.L.C. and we are happy to say that it has been a real success. We have participated successfully in tournaments at Peterborough, Toronto and Oshawa. We would like to give our thanks to Mrs. Swann, Susan and Robert. Without them there would have been no Judo at our school.

DRAMA AND SPEECH ARTS

To be, or not to be, an actress, that is the question!

BALLET

Ballet has had its debut in O.L.C. this year and it appears that we have a few new sugar plum fairies for our own version of the Nutcracker Suite. We are certain that Rudolph Nureyev will be happy to participate in the debut of our stars!

Keep pointing those toes girls!

BIG AND LITTLE SISTERS

Well, what can one say about our dear, sweet grade seven and eights? LOTS — The year has been a challenging one for the little gaphers and as we grade thirteens have been their BIG sisters we've tried to help them along in their puppy love sicknesses, their urges for pizza and the general need for a big hug. We've seen them at their best and of course at their worst. We will miss our darling, courageous and generally loveable sisters, and wish them the best of luck in their futures.

Love from the grade thirteens.

COMMENCEMENT

... Our future is what we are thinking about most of all. Several things we should remember — be exuberant, enthusiastic, full of joy, jump into life with both feet. Don't conform to all the standards of the world but bend the world to your personal higher standards.

Tonight is not the end of our education, but just the beginning. We will be learning for the rest of our lives.

Where will each of us be in fifteen years? Probably spread all over the world. We will be doing something different but whatever it may be, we must give it everything we have. Success is up to ourselves. Put your heart into your work and do your best.

The visit from Albert College was a great success. It was a day crammed with activities . . . tennis, swimming, volleyball, basketball, card games, chess, math problems, a make-up demonstration and last, but not least, the great challenge 'Reach for the Top' when the keen minds of O.L.C. challenged the brains of Albert . . . and lost! We hope to visit Albert College next year with the same festive spirit.

HALLOWE'EN

This page is sponsored by
MR. & MRS. L.E. ESTE

Once again Hallowe'en struck the halls of O.L.C., and the castle came back to life. Not only the girls, but the staff members were transformed into terrors.

Whitby seemed to be haunted by our little ladies, who all went out "trick or treating".

In the midst of the activities we were visited by an unexpected GORILLA, who became the center of attraction at the party. The fortune-telling, the dance contest, the pumpkin-cutting contest and those tasteful refreshments all served to make our Hallowe'en party a memorable one.

THE S.C.F. BAZAAR

This year, O.L.C. held one of its best bazaars ever. We made over one thousand dollars. This means that we not only could afford two foster children, but also donate money to other charitable organizations, such as the Leprosy Fund, and the Christopher Robin Home for children, plus many more.

The Bazaar consisted of a bake table, a white elephant table, plants and books tables, a handicrafts table, plus a tea room, a pizza room, and a play.

Everyone worked really hard on this affair and it sure was worth it.

Thanks everybody,

Kathy Davis

GRADE 13 CHRISTMAS PARTY

Eat your heart out Santa.

Which ant's winning?

Twas the night before leaving
When all through Main Hall
Not a creature was stirring,
Not even a centipede.
The pantyhose were hung by the rads with care
In hopes that Mrs. Halliday would not be aware.
The housemothers, all, were nestled in bed
And the maids dreamt of sugar plums
While dancing on their heads.
The Dean in her kerchief and Lee in his cap
Had just settled in for a long winter's nap.

Is she alive?

Look, Teddy, look.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

Eat drink and be merry!

Merry Christmas to you.

SNOW QUEEN '78

I've got to go to the bathroom!

I can't bear to look at the hill!

One damp, gray, cold February morning the 'ladies' came to breakfast in their 'jammies'. This was ski day for all at Dagmar Ski Club. Everyone dressed for arctic conditions, grabbed a bagged lunch (courtesy of Mrs. H.) and clamboured aboard the waiting buses. Dagmar and its instructors, greeted us with open arms. Some chose the thrill of downhill, some headed for the cross-country trails and some favoured the club house. Hot chocolate flowed and chocolate bars were traded. Everyone had a good time.

On the way home the buses were more quiet than usual and that night everyone was in bed on time.

Ricky, Stacia and Celeste . . . doing what they do best!

This just isn't Montreal!

Hey! Come on over. We'll teach you.

Ski Bums.

Say, this is all right!

LES CANADIENS

By Salutin and K. Dryden

Stick this garbage! Play hockey!

I tell you, this is pretty embarrassing!

Face Off!

Practically overnight, nine drama students (female) turned into big, brawny, expert hockey players . . . on roller skates! Quite a challenge, I tell you!

Besides being a wonderful learning experience the play, Les Canadiens, was lots of fun . . . bruises included. Everyone worked hard, both memorising the numerous lines and practising roller-skating.

But it was not all in vain. At the Durham Region Collegiate Festival, the play captured the Adjudicator's Award as well as the audience. A memorable experience indeed.

LES CANADIENS begins on the Plains of Abraham in 1759 when a French-Canadian soldier throws his rifle to his son and it becomes a hockey stick. It ends in the Montreal forum on the night of Nov. 15, 1976, when the Montreal Canadian fans turn a hockey game into an election victory rally for the independantiste Parti Quebecois. In between, it is a play about Quebec and Canada using hockey as a metaphor and a play about hockey using Quebec and Canada as its setting.

An Improvisational play is a play in which each character makes up her own lines. You can imagine the surprises in this presentation by the Juniors . . . Prince Charming on his imaginary horse, the wicked queen with a Hungarian accent, and a 'gay' eighth dwarf! It was a hilarious experience for all. Thanks to Miss Mentis and to Chris Hnatiuk (our glamorous queen) for all their help in making this play possible.

We hope that you enjoyed watching the play as much as we enjoyed presenting it to you.

School Trip Italy

Our trip to Italy really began at the Davis', first with a 'punch and cheese' party and then an Italian dinner. So you see, the smiling faces on the left, not only express excitement but also contentment.

This was a thrilling holiday, filled with experiences we will never forget . . . and some we will never repeat! What an itinerary . . . Milan, Venice (the flood!), Florence (the disco!) Sorrento, Pompei, Capri, Rome and Tivoli. Under the watchful eye of Mrs. Davis and Giovanni (!!!) we had a memorable holiday.

Beauty at its peak.

FORMAL

Prospects for our annual formal looked rather dim for a while but with the collaboration of Pickering College the event was a smash. Through the hard work of the dance committee a first was established. Twenty singles from Pickering were invited to our formal and single girls from O.L.C. were able to attend. With good food, good music and good company, what could go wrong? The Formal was definitely a success!

Now isn't that interesting.

He's beautiful!

We crown thee Queen of Queens.

SENIOR DINNER

The Grade 10's were going to honour the Grade XIII's by serving champagne after the dinner but since the ginger-ale had already been ordered, and not wanting to upset things, they decided to read a poem instead.

The grade XIII's stand united Against the cruel world.
Think of all the wrongs they've righted
And the insults they have hurled.
They'll never forget the tears and the fun.
Together they lost, tried again and they won.
So with heavy hearts and tears in our eyes,
To the senior class, we say our good-byes.

SPECIAL EVENTS

On Monday, June 4, 1979, the O.L.C. family . . . the Board of Directors, alumnae, students, staff and faculty . . . gathered together to say farewell to Dr. and Mrs. Davis, to thank them for their contribution to the life of the school and at the same time to reminisce a little with them. We hope that their future years will be as happy as was this last dinner shared together.

And as we said our farewells to the Davises we said hello to Shannon Palmer . . . our May Queen 1995.

This has been an eventful year in the life of our school.
